Buffalo Breezes.

Indolence, caused by la grippe and neuralgia has caused me to neglect the HERALD, but here goes with plenty of news-the most exciting was the prarie fires of the last few days that have kept us on the alert. First two weeks ago a strip was burned north of Mr. Bockhorst's that, by the united exertions of the neighborhood was run into the Liberal road and stopped. For several days this week we could see fires on west and northwest and Thursday just after dinner it crossed the Beaver at a point between Keen's and Calvert's after having burned all the range and feed south of the Beaver. upon or address J. W. Calvert had all of his bay burned and his house had a very close call. Mr. Calvort being away from home his buildings were saved by the exertion of kind neighbors, and while the crowd was at work there the fire on the south side had destroyed Pearl Cal. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder vert's barn. The fire fighters then rushed over the river and arrived just in time to save Pearl's house; the fire passed on burning two of Mr. Fought's sheep and singed several more it barned on to the Coldwater where everyone up the creek, also Davis and Threikeld, lost all feed and range. The fire that crossed the Beaver came over our hills southeast of Buffalo about 3 o'clock and it was a terror; it would not have crossed Pany creek had not Pearl Calvert, sho was going home with his wife, baby and sister-inlaw, been met by a head fire and fearing he was going to be surrounded fired on the north fide and away it went fanned by a outhwest gale, in the direction of Mound. Our neighborhood turned out and whipped t out on our neath border and when it reached the strip burned two weeks ago northeast of here it went out. Yesterday

The men plowed last night to put out back fires until horses and men were almost scorched. In eight Joe Garner, Woodward, H. C.
